AVA
You told the officer you got home at eleven.

LUKE
Around eleven.

AVA
Your building's camera has you in the lobby at twelve forty.

LUKE
Then the camera's wrong.

AVA
The camera's not wrong, Luke. Where were you for the ninety minutes you're not --

LUKE
I was sitting in my car. In the garage. I do that sometimes before I go up, I just sit there. It's the only part of the day that's mine.

AVA
(beat)
Why didn't you say that?

LUKE
Because it sounds made up.
